

Vampire Kitties

By Ted Harris

We join Moxie and Mittens the Vampire Kitties stalking prey above San Francisco's Chinatown. Yearning for his first taste of human blood after centuries as vampires, Moxie hopes tonight his luck will change...

Hey little kitties,
what's happening?

Hi cute little birdy.

Haha! Our first victim of the night. You'll die by my hands, or,
paws that is.

Dude, what's with the buzz kill?

Oh, him. He's harmless.

No! We will kill you!
We will drink your blood!

He is like total cute man. I am off to see if I can score some dim sum.

Bye bye birdie.

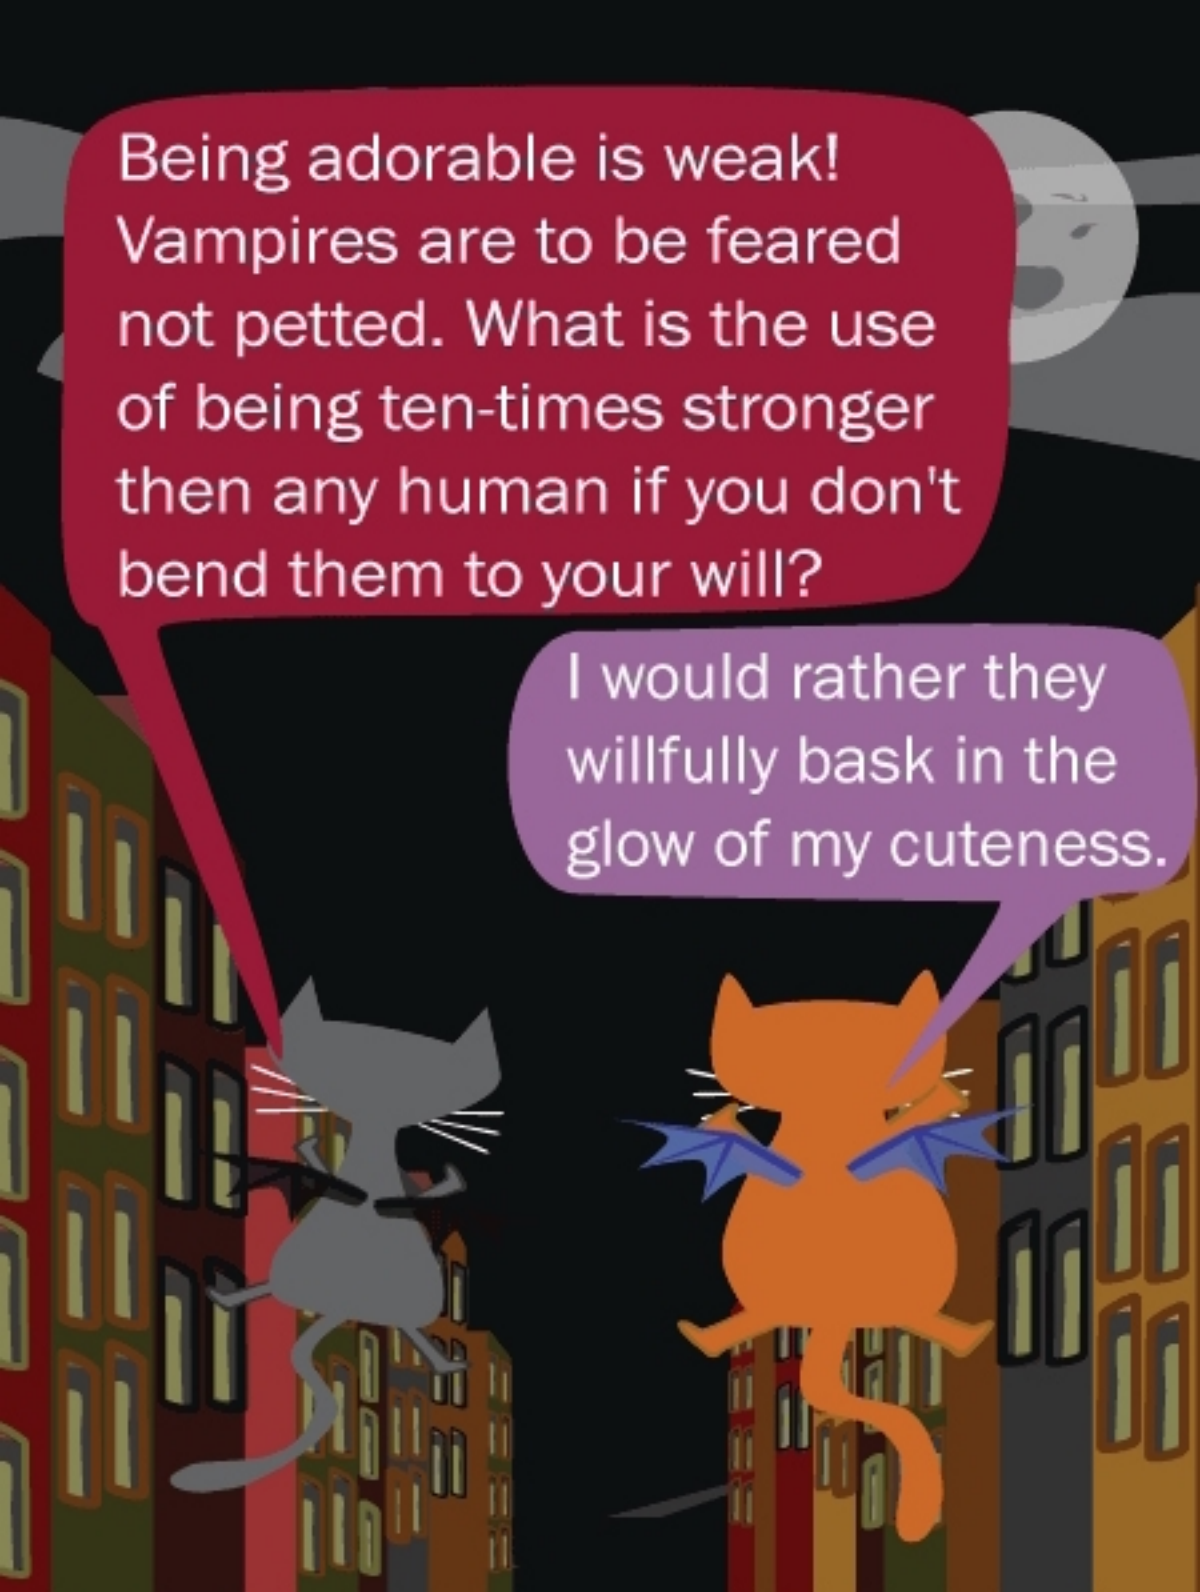

Wait! Don't go, let me drink your blood first!

There's an idea.
Where there's dim sum
there is bound to be humans. Follow me.

I love humans because they think I am adorable.

Being adorable is weak!
Vampires are to be feared not petted. What is the use of being ten-times stronger than any human if you don't bend them to your will?

I would rather they willfully bask in the glow of my cuteness.

If I do have suck blood I will only do it in an adorable way.

You can't be adorable and suck blood.

No, sucking blood rapidly reduces a kitten's cuteness, even one as adorable as me.

Sometimes you disgust me.

You're just jealous because I am cuter than you.

DIM SUM

點心

Yummy! Dim sum!
Lets order. I want two orders of siu mai and -

Focus- we want human blood not dim sum.

I would rather get everyone's attention so they can see how cute I am.

I would feed off of you if I didn't think you would taste awful.

Safe bet given how many bugs I eat.

There- that one in red.
She is purrrfect for a feast!

I think she looks like someone's mom. Drinking blood from a mom is not cute.

The point is to be a vampire -not to be cute!

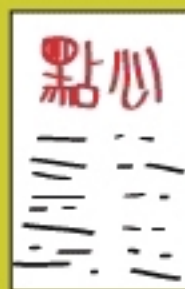

SUM

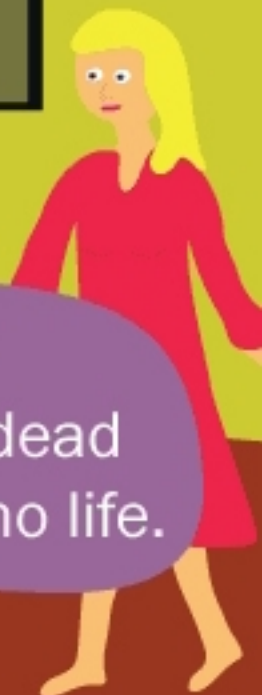

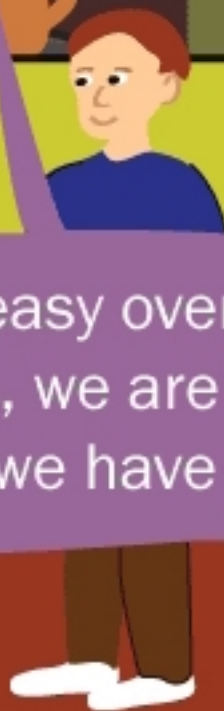

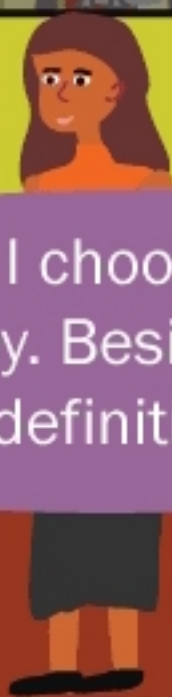

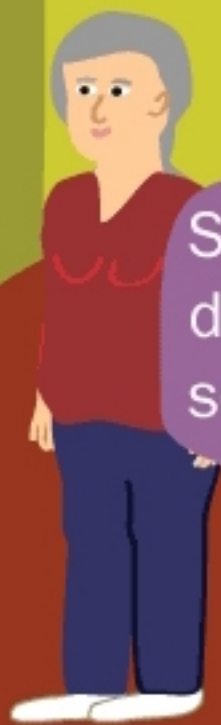

Being vampires seems like an awful lot of work for kitties. Being cute is much easier.

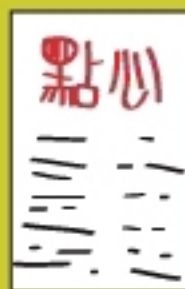

Life is not about being easy. It is about being who you are destined to be!

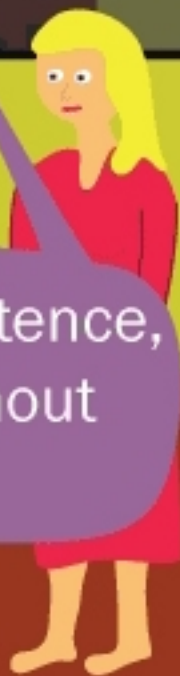

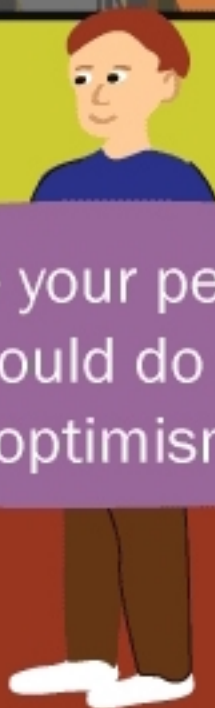

Sorry, I choose easy over destiny. Besides, we are dead so by definition we have no life.

Good! She's leaving. We'll ambush her in the alley then feast upon her.

I love your persistence, but could do without your optimism.

Prepare yourself human! Now you are in the grasps of the most dreaded of all of the night's creatures, VAMPIRE KITTIES! Tonight is the night you meet your doom!

I just want some of your dim sum. In exchange, I'll let you experience my cuteness.

Oh! Aren't you two just the cutest things!
I could just eat you up.

No, it is not you who will eat us but us who will feast upon you! Booheaaa!
We are not cute! We are fierce and ruthless vampires who will drain your body of all its life giving blood.
Prepare to DIE!

And you are wearing little vampire costumes, How utterly adorable!

No! We are all-powerful vampires. Tremble, cower, kneel before us!

She called us adorable!

Oh, no...

I feel an uncontrollable urge for cuteness. Must.. be.. more.. cute!

Resist! Resist! If you roll over your vampire powers will be useless.

Think of how tasty her blood will be. If we do this we can finally be respectable vampires.

Must be cuter!

Rolling over...

No! Don't do it. You want blood -human blood.

I have said before
and I will say it again,
you are weak.

To late- I must submit.

Come one Moxie,
just do it. You know you want to.

Fine, but the next victim after her we will feed upon. I will never roll over again...
after this time.

So cute, rolling over on your backs for me. You are the cutest little kitties.

The humiliation! Next time I will feed off of you woman!

Sure you won't.

Will Moxy roll over again? Will the Vampire Kitties ever taste human blood? It is obvious what the answer to those questions are.

Shut up announcer.
